

NFORC and Student Collaborative Research Summit

Rotblat Lecture Theatre (room G02). Joseph Rotblat Building.
Charterhouse Square Campus, London. EC1MBE
Wednesday 19th June 2019. 1:00pm-6pm

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

- 13.00 – 13.10 Professor Iain Hutchison – Welcome talk
- 13.10 – 13.25 Professor Zbys Fedorowicz – Evidence to decision making; the research challenges
- 13.25 – 13.40 Fran Ridout – Research Methodologies
- 13.40 – 13.55 Professor Arthur Tucker – Ethics (TBC)
- 13.55 – 14.05 Ping San – A survey of pharmacists' advice on mouth ulcers
- 14.05 – 14.15 Imon Pal – Using Surgeons and Mouth Cancer to Discourage Smoking –A randomised controlled trial.
- 14.15 – 14.25 Terrence Soh Chi Fang – Hand Hygiene Compliance - A Student-led Collaborative Study
- 14.25 – 14.55 Professor Iain Hutchison – Generality of studies and research. How to get involved in research?
- 14.55 – 15.15 Break.
- 15.15 – 15.30 Milad Tavakoli – Developing risk stratification models for free flap complications in
- 15.30 – 15.45 } head and neck surgery
- 15.45 – 16.00 }
- 16.00 – 16.15 } Opportunity for students to present their research ideas.
- 16.15 – 16.30 } Each speaker to present for 5 minutes followed by 10 minutes Q&A round.
- 16.30 – 16.45 }
- 16.45 – 17.00 }
- 17.00 – 18.00 Discussion on presentations and judging.

If you are interested in presenting your research or idea at the Summit, send us a 200-word structured abstract following the PICO (Population, Intervention, Comparator and Outcome) format, if applicable, on a topic related to Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery to nforcresearchsummit@gmail.com by 10th June.

Certificates will be provided for all attendees and presenters.
Register yourself for this free event by emailing nforcresearchsummit@gmail.com
For further updates visit www.nforc.co.uk