

The Face and Reconstruction

A public debate on facial transplantation tissue engineering and the impact on identity

Queen Elizabeth Hall, South Bank Arts Centre

Waterloo, London SE1

Tuesday March 4th 2008

10.30am to 13.30

Admission - Free

Moderator – Jon Snow (Channel 4 News)

Facial anatomy and Functions

Professor Iain Hutchison (Barts and The London NHS Trust)

10.30-10.40

Facial Recognition and Identity

Professor Vicki Bruce (Edinburgh)

10.40-11.00

Our Experiences with the World's First Face Transplant

Prof Bernard Devauchelle / Prof Sylvie Testelin (Amiens, France)

11.00-11.30

Physical Problems with Transplantation

Professor Sir Peter Morris

(President Royal College of Surgeons of England 2001-2004)

11.30-11.45

The benefits for society of face transplantation

Professor Anthony Grayling (Birbeck, London)

11.45-12.00

The hazards for society of face transplantation

Professor Raj Persaud (Kings College, London)

12.00-12.15

Growing Faces in the laboratory

Professor Francis Hughes (Queen Mary College, London)

12.15-12.30

Growing Faces in the patient's body

Professor Henning Schliephake (Goettingen, Germany)

12.30-12.45

Using computers to generate and identify faces

Professor Alf Linney (University College, London)

12.45-13.00

Ring or email Facial Surgery Research Foundation - Saving Faces with your details to book your free admission

0207 601 7582

savingfaces@mail.com