

Public debate with internationally renowned speakers

Stem Cell Research: Hope or Hype?

Wednesday May 25th, 10am–1pm,
Queen Elizabeth Hall, London SE1

Will stem cells be the cure of all disease?

Should we be researching on human embryos?

Do the benefits outweigh the dangers?

Are stem cells angels or rogues?

With speakers from the world of genetics, bioethics and fertility, the event will be chaired by Jon Snow and moderated by Professor Anne McLaren

Speakers are:

Dr Robin Lovell-Badge Professor Paul Sharpe Professor Peter Braude Professor Nigel Cameron
Professor Neil Scolding Dr Françoise Shenfield Professor Ian Mackenzie

Organised by The Facial Surgery Research Foundation Saving Faces

Supported by

THE LANCET

The Guardian

BMJ
Journals

To save disappointment, book tickets in advance £10 (Concessions £5)

Send cheque made payable to Saving Faces to:

Saving Faces, St Bartholomew's Hospital, London EC1A 7BE

Or call 020 7601 7582.

Visit www.savingfaces.co.uk or e-mail savingfaces@mail.com